The NALSAR Mediation Tournament has always been a platform where brilliant minds converge to exchange ideas, demonstrate their skills, and engage in the art of mediation. This tournament is not just a competition; it is a celebration of the spirit of understanding, cooperation, and the shared belief in the power of mediation to resolve conflicts. At NALSAR, we are committed to providing a comprehensive legal education that emphasizes the importance of mediation as an effective tool in the legal arsenal. This tournament is a testament to our dedication to nurturing future legal professionals who are equipped with not only the knowledge but also the wisdom to navigate the complexities of dispute resolution. I extend my best wishes to all the participants. May this tournament be an enriching experience that contributes to your personal and professional growth. I also express my gratitude to the organizers, sponsors, and everyone involved in making the NALSAR Mediation Tournament 2025 a successful and memorable event. Prof. Srikrishna Dev Rao Vice Chancellor

Indisputably, NALSAR counts as one of the best law schools in the country. This has been reiterated in leading media agencies such as India Today and Times of India, among others. NALSAR boasts of a new academic system that gives the students a great degree of agency in deciding which field they want to specialize in over the course of their law school which cultivates a fresh and inclusive environment for learning. In addition to that, various clinics have been instituted to boost extra-curricular activities such as mootings, debating and writing.
